

STUDENT NAME	PROJECT DESCRIPTION
Baltzley, Aubrianne	Aubri earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through a combination of a Public Policy in Government class and excelling and reflecting on civic virtues discussed in various elective courses such as Advanced Placement Literature and Composition.
Blair, Isla	Isla earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through a capstone project where she researched the need for additional academic services in rural school districts. Her work evaluated current policy regarding funding for secondary students who would utilize academic interventions,
Bower, Jamie	Jamie earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through her service learning project which sought to bring attention to gender inequality in athletics, specifically ice hockey. Her presence as a female hockey player and coach to younger generations is working to bring representation to the sport alongside bringing attention to the inequalities faced by female hockey players.
Bower, Kaitlyn	Kaitlyn earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through two service learning projects. The first is through her dedication to the Newstead Volunteer Fire Company where she focused her work on the challenges of a volunteer company serving a rural community. Additionally, she worked to help welcome, vaccinate and find loving homes for dogs in need.
Crockford, Noah	Noah earned his Seal of Civic Readiness through completion of his Eagle Award through scouts. His project was to build a pollinator hotel, or in his words, a big, fancy bee hive. This project helped wildlife and his community at the Wildlife Refuge.
Dieterle, Maesa	Maesa earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through a capstone project where she researched the need for additional academic services in rural school districts. Her work evaluated current policy regarding funding for secondary students who would utilize academic interventions,
Doctor, Riley	Riley earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through focusing on preserving the Seneca language. Having taken all four years of Seneca, Riley was inspired to try to reignite high school students to be connected to their culture the same way as they were in their youth.
Fox, Ava	Ava earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through her service learning project where she brought awareness to the veterans who deserve honor in the Akron community. Ava raised funds, built a flagpole and bench memorial and dedicated it to two deserving community members. Additionally, the extra funds were donated to deserving seniors through scholarships at Akron.
Hucker, Kaleb	Kaleb earned his Seal of Civic Readiness through work-based learning experiences in both pre-k 3 and 3-5 year old classrooms. Kaleb's internship brought awareness to the need for special education services and support in schools as well as spreading awareness to the need for students with needs to be able to advocate for themselves and be heard.
Kabangira-Kipendo, Tiana	Tiana earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through various service learning projects connected to her church. Tiana helped organize donation drives and bring awareness to individuals in need within our own community.
Klodzinski, Julia	Julia earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through her work on the Student Athlete Advisory Committee. Over her four years at Akron, Julia has been a student leader and worked closely with other student-athletes in the N-O League to improve their community. As the senior female class of 2025 representative, she serves as a model in leadership and activism.
Liss, Ella	Ella earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through a service learning trip to the Dominican Republic.

	During this trip, she completed many service projects to help the community such as providing free eye exams and glasses to those in need as well as stuccoing and painting a wall for their community nutrition center.
Martin, Garrett	Garrett earned his Seal of Civic Readiness through earning a seat on the Akron Chamber of Commerce. Garrett has acted as the student representative for the chamber and is working towards organizing a job fair with congressional leaders and town chambers in the summer.
Owen, Ryan	Ryan earned his Seal of Civic Readiness through his public policy project in Government class as well as reflecting on the civic lessons taught in various elective classes such as multiple personal Finance courses and Civil Engineering and Architecture class.
Sokolofsky, Peter	Peter earned his Seal of Civic Readiness through a service learning trip to the Dominican Republic. He completed various service projects for an underserved community in this region such as hosting an eye care clinic which provided vision checks and glasses to the community. Additionally, he helped to construct a stucco wall for the local community school and nutrition center.
Wilber, Brianna	Brianna earned her Seal of Civic Readiness through her service learning project with veterans. Inspired by her family member, Brianna wanted to be an example of the way society should treat veterans- by giving them time, support and conversation. Her project brought awareness to the need for improved services through the VA for our veterans.