FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETINGS ARE NOW STREAMED LIVE FROM YOUTUBE

AKRON, NEW YORK (December 20, 2021) – The Board of Education meetings for the Akron Central School District are open to the public during the COVID-19 pandemic. Meetings are currently being held in the High School cafeteria. Meetings are also now being streamed live from YouTube instead of Zoom. The change to the school's YouTube channel for streaming the meetings is now possible due to the increased number of subscribers for the channel. For non-athletic events, individuals can visit <https://www.youtube.com/c/AkronCentralSchoolDistrict> to view recordings of Board of Education meetings, music concerts and other presentations.

Mrs. Roxanne Rebmann, District Clerk of Akron Central Schools, reminds all visitors to the district including those attending the Board of Education meetings in person, are required to wear a mask at all times when inside the building.

Any questions regarding the Board of Education meetings can be directed to Mrs. Roxanne Rebmann, District Clerk, at (716)542-5006 or districtclerk@akronk12.org. Additional information about the Board of Education at Akron Schools is available from the "Quick Links" section of the school website at www.akronschools.org.
